Relief for Workmen.

In receiving a delegation of workmen from Meseow to-day, Finance Minister Kokovsoff gave notice to the workmen of Russia that a government comalisation is now formulating legislation to remedy the greater part of their grievances including state insurance against sickness, accident and age, and for shortquing the hours of labor, abolishing the prohibition of unions and criminal punishment for strikes and for the establishment of an industrial court in which employers and employes shall be represented. The minister planted out to the delegation the impossibility of claborating in a moment legislation of such weighty and far-reaching character. He declared that the energy with which the commission is working gave it the right to demand sufficient time for the proposition and consideration of proposed saws, and said that industrial disturbances such as lave occurred hamper instead of further the work.

FAMOUS CASE IS DECIDED BY GOFF

Temporary Injunction in Union Trust Company's Suit Dissolved.

PROMINENT LAWYERS HERE

Elihu Root and William B. Hornblower Among Counsel Employed.

Judge Nathan Goff, of the Circuit Court of the United States, decided here yesterday afternoon a case of great importance, and which brought to the city i now-buy while the bloom is large assemblage of lawyers and business men from New York, Baltimore and Southwest Virginia. The case was that of the Union Trust Company, of Maryland, against George L.

Carter and Clinchfield Corporation, which ra's argued before Judge Goff, at Clarksburg, W. Va., and upon a motion by the burg. W. Va., and upon a motion by complainant for an injunction and re-ceivers for the properties of Clinchfield Corporation, and it was this motion that he decided yesterday, dissolving the in-junction and declining to appoint receivers. Judge Goff read a lengthy and elaborate opinion dealing fully with all the points involved and discussing the questions of law, and fact in the case. The spit was brought by the Union Trust Company, suing as a stockholder of the Clinchfield Corporation, asking the court to set aside a contract between that corporation and George L. Carter, by which, in consideration of the sum of $2,00,000 cash the corporation sold all of its properties to Mr. Judge Goff read a lengthy and elaborate stock of Crane's Nest Coal and Coke Company, which in turn owned large and valuable coal lands in Southwest Virginia, and the stock of the South and Western Railway Company, which owns a railroad partly completed and in operation in North Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia. There were also certain terminal properties at Southport, N. C., involved, as well as certain railway properties in North Carolina and certain bonds of the Crane's Nest Coal and Coke Company and South and Western Railway Company. and Western Rallway Company.

History of the Case.

The opinion gives a history of the properties and shows that George L. Carter on March 6, 1902, for the purpose of forming a syndicate which would promote the enterprise and build the railway, gave to the Union Trust Company of Maryland, an option to purchase for $2.385,790, all of the capital stock of certain coal and railway companies, a syndicate was formed way companies, a syndicate was formed which acquired the properties at this price and held same until June, 1904. Union Trust Company, in the meantum-seeking without success to make sommoney for their development, some of the syndicate subscribers lost confidence in the ability of the Union Trust Company to manage the syndicate and the Clinchfield Corporation was formed in June, 1994, for the purpose of taking over the properties and relieving the syndicate and selling the same as quickly as possible. It seems that the charter of the Clinchfield Corporation vested all powers of its management in its directors until January 1, 1910, and that the certificates for the 1, 1910, and that the certificates for the shares of stock called attention to this provision of the charter, and further that of their subscriptions executed a con tract in which they agreed not to cal any meeting of the stockholders for any field Corporation twenty-six miles of rail-road which he had purchased since the formation of the syndicate, and was him self one of the directors and vice-presi dent and general manager of the Clinch field Corporation. Various attempts were made by the Clinchfield Corporation to dispose of the properties, but all without success until the sale to Carter, which is attacked in this suit, was made.

Judge's Opinion.

Judge's Opinion.

The opinion of Judge Goff deals successively with all the contentions of the Union Trust Company, and holds that it and all other subscribers to the stock of the Clinchfield Corporation are bound by the provisions of the charter and by the contracts executed by them, binding themselves not to call any meetings of stockholders, and that therefore the meeting of stockholders attempted to be held on Jarjary 21, 1905, at Bristol, was a nullity, and that the first officers mamed in the charter are the true officers of the Clinchfield Corporation.

The temporary restraining order which had been granted in the cause wis dissolved, and the court refused to appoint

The temporary restraining order which had been granted in the cause was dissolved, and the court refused to appoint receivers, the opinion concluding with the statement that the court does not at this time dispose of the questions raised by the defendants relating to the good faith of the complainant, the Union Trust Con, tany, in instituting and prosecuting this suit.

After the decision of the court a motion in regard to the jurisdiction in the case was argued by Messrs, James Byrne and William B. Hornblower, of New York, representing Thomas F. Ryan, Norman B. Ream and others, who have publicased the properties from teorge L. Carter, and Edgar H. Gans, of Baitimore, representing Mr. Carter, and Julian T. Davies, of New York, and William H. White, of Norfolk, for the Union Trust Company of Maryland. The question so argued was as to whether or not the court could entertain jurisdiction of this case for any purpose, since if was contended by Ryan, Ream and others that the property had been sold to them by Carter, and had passed beyond the jurisdiction of the court. Time was given to file briefs on this motion, which Judieg Goff took under consideration. Briefs were filed last night.

The counsel for the complainant of record in the case are: William H. White, of Norfolk; Fleider C. Slingluff, of Baltimore, Bradley W. Palmer, of Bostoni, Julian T. Davies, of New York. Counsel for the Confed are: John D. Horsley, of Lynghburg, and Judge A. A. Phlegar, acting for J. S. Lemmon, of Baltimore, are counsel for the Clinchfield Corporation. Mr. Root was unable to be present.

In connection with this matter Mr. Goorge L. Carter, of Bristol, Mr. James Glark, and other prominent business men of Baltimore, were in the city yesterday.
